Background

The Librarian uses the main floor of the Great Library for housing his research and items he has stolen from various parts of the world. He stores stolen manual pages of previous Ruin Seekers inside of glass capsules. He stole the Swamp's gate device and connected it to a makeshift tomb as a power source. He decorates the room with green hook-tongue banners, the decoration and symbol used by the Frogs of Frog's Domain; he likely took them around the same timeframe he stole the green key from its Southern Vault.

The Librarian has written various information about the world upon 4 different chalkboards.
